HONOR LIST

FOR 1913

Twenty-one churches in the United States now have Missionary Herald Clubs of twenty or more members.

In the order of size they are as follows:

Los Angeles, Cal.	First Ch.	80	Brookline, Mass.	Harvard Ch.	27
San Diego, Cal.	First Ch.	46	Northampton, Mass.	Edwards Ch.	26
Honolulu, T. H.	Central Union	42	Chester, Vt. (185 members)		25
Portland, Me.	State St. Ch.	35	Longmeadow, Mass.		24
Washington, D. C.	First Ch.	34	West Haven, Conn.		24
Dorchester, Mass.	Second Ch.	33	Upper Montclair, N. J.		23
Galesburg, Ill.	Central Ch.	33	Des Moines, Ia.	Plymouth Ch.	22
Auburndale, Mass.	First Ch.	31	Topeka, Kan.	Central Ch.	22
Claremont, Cal.		30	San Jose, Cal.	First Ch.	20
Hampden, Me. (77 members)		30	Honolulu, T. H.	Kawaiahao Ch.	20
			Wheaton, Ill.	College Ch. 20

A glance over this list shows that these clubs are not confined to one section of the country; or to large churches; or to those in cities; or to "rich congregations." They are where some one has taken an interest in forming the club.

One organizer of a club writes: "In every case I carried a sample copy with me, and, while showing how cheap the club rates were, I would add, 'But I am not offering it because it is cheap, but because it is worth while; and if you read it you will get more fun out of giving your money to our foreign missions.'"

Now is just the time to form these clubs for 1914. Who will do it? Think of China and the Balkans and see how easy it is to awaken interest in a magazine that tells the truth about what is happening in all these lands.
